James Von Tellrop
IHLA Scholarship Application

Background
In February of 2022, the IHLA Board of Directors voted to rename the IHLA Scholarship to the "James Von Tellrop IHLA Scholarship."

Von Tellrop, an IHLA past president and life director, worked with local schools in his community to promote careers in hardwoods, and exemplified the "giving" spirit of IHLA.

Established in 1987, the intent of the scholarship is to provide for the future of our association and our industry by supporting continuing education for our members and future members.

Eligibility
Applicants must be at least 18 years of age or a high school senior, reside in the U.S. or Canada, and have a specific interest in the hardwood lumber industry. Applicants will remain anonymous during the selection process.

Application Forms
The selection committee will make determinations on a yearly basis and applications can be downloaded from the IHLA website at www.ihla.org. This application must be received by March 31st.

Objective
The objective is to provide monetary support to individuals interested in developing a career in the hardwood industry. The monetary support may be used by the recipient to attend any educational program ranging from a two or four year collegiate program, trade school, lumber grading school, saw filer school, dry kiln operators schooling, etc. It is the intent of this award to raise the abilities of the individual and in turn the industry and its members.

Award
Applications must be submitted in writing by no later than March 31st of each year. These awards will be granted in April each year. If renewal of the award is sought, resubmission of an application is necessary. The sum total of the awards will never exceed more than 10% of the fund value annually. The recipient(s) will be recognized at the following year's annual convention.

Selection Committee
The selection committee is composed of the IHLA Executive Committee, who has the authority to select recipients based on the qualifications and merits of the applicants. Fund allocations on a year to year basis will be the decision of this committee and will be solely based on fund value. Awards will be given based on academics, financial need, civic or other service or all three.
